

WHSRN SITE OF <INSERT LEVEL¹> IMPORTANCE

<NAME OF WHSRN SITE 2-LINE MAXIMUM>

<85-word (or less) description of the site to include information about its location, special ecological/geological features, annual number of shorebirds and other types of birds, number of different shorebird species recorded here, and other facts of general interest about the site that won't soon become outdated.>

<Site description text to end approximately here (maximum).>

WESTERN HEMISPHERE SHOREBIRD RESERVE NETWORK (WHSRN)

<A short description of WHSRN, with current statistics and website address, to be provided by WHSRN Executive Office at the time the sign is designed.>

<WHSRN text to end approximately here (maximum).>

¹ Hemispheric, Landscape, International, or Regional

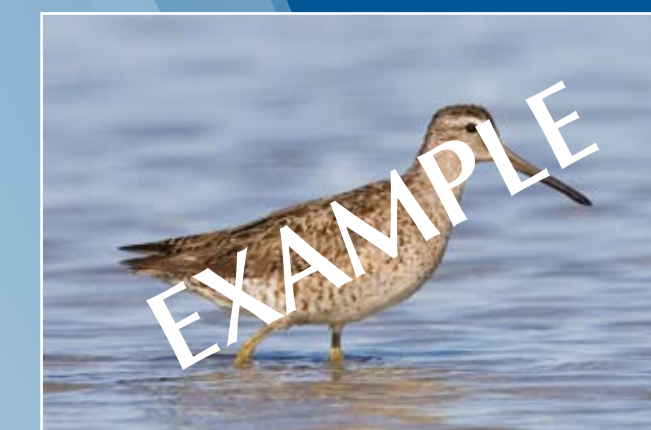

Shorebirds² you may see at this site include:

Least Sandpiper
(Calidris minutilla)

Lesser Yellowlegs
(Tringa flavipes)

Short-billed Dowitcher
(Limnodromus griseus)

Pectoral Sandpiper
(Calidris melanotos)

² Provide up to 4 high-resolution (3.5" x 2.25" @ 300 dpi) photos of shorebirds commonly seen at your WHSRN site.

Provide common and scientific names.

³ Your WHSRN Site name will appear on the map, next to its location marked with a star (★).

